earlier be issued against all the above accused for 04.09.19, along with copy of the complaint.

Accused who have been served and not present but moved applications seeking exemption from personal appearance

A-121 : Paras Bolia : Shri Jaideep Singh Advocate for accused
A-144 : Joydeep Das: Sh. Sanjay Pahuja, Adv. For accused.
A-155 : Mahendra Kumar Tak : Sh.Rohit, Adv. For accused.
A-163 : Megha Chauhan : Sh.Harsh Kaushik, Adv. For accused.
A-164 : Indu Tak : Sh. Harsh Kaushik, Adv. for accused.
A-165 : Shyam Bihari Gupta : Sh. Rohit, Adv. For the accused.
A-166 : Ravi Tak : Sh. Neeraj Dev Gaur, Adv. For accused.
A-170 : Sudhir Mehta : Sh.Ankur Sood, Adv. for accused.
A-171 : Raj Kumar Bohra : Sh.Ankur Sood, Adv. for accused.
A-172 : Saurabh Tak : Sh. Neeraj Dev Gaur, Adv. for accused.
A-173 : Peeyush Aggarwal : Sh. Arvind Jain, Adv. for accused.
A-175 : Vijay Jhindal : Sh. Priyank Khattar, Adv. for accused.
A-178 : Mahesh Sharma : Sh. J.B. Sharma, Advocate for accused.
A-187 : Mahesh K. Tak : Sh. Neeraj Dev Gaur, Adv. for accused.

Bailable warrants of all the above mentioned accused persons received back duly served but none of them has appeared in person, on the contrary they have moved separate applications seeking exemption from the personal appearance, on the grounds of being unable to move due to medical problems or other personal reasons, under the provisions of section 205 Cr.P.C., which were vehemently opposed by the counsel for the complaint, SFIO alleging the grounds to be false and fabricated.

Accordingly after considering the contentions of all the counsels for all the concerned parties, it comes out that irrespective of the grounds put forward by each of the applicants as alleged in their applications, there is no ground either on facts or legally to grant them exemption from personal appearance because section 205 of the Cr.P.C. is applicable only when a Magistrate has issued the process through summons to appear under Section 204(1)(a) of the Cr.P.C. in a case arising out of a summons case, whereas, the present case involves the cognizable and non bailable offence that too under the Companies Act, 2013 and thus required to be tried as warrant case trial on a complaint by public servant and thus the accused were accordingly summoned through bailable warrant of arrest, whereas even non bailable warrants could have also been issued in view of the gravity of the allegations and to secure the presence of the accused without delay. As such, no exemption on the alleged plea can be entertained or allowed as the accused are required to surrender and seek regular bail being summoned for commission of non bailable offences that too under the Companies Act, 2013. Thus finding no ground whatsoever as all the grounds of medical problems or personal issues are nothing but a after thought and manipulated grounds and the application being not maintainable, all the applications of the accused are hereby dismissed.

Having said so, it is also a fact that copy of the complaint was not sent with bailable warrants although offences for which they have been summoned were duly mentioned on warrants. But still in the interest of justice and fair play, giving one more chance to all the above accused, it is ordered that instead of warrant of arrests, let fresh bailable warrants as ordered earlier be issued against all the above accused for 04.09.19, along with copy of the complaint.

All the above referred accused have surrendered and moved separate bail applications seeking regular bail. Copy Supplied to complainant. The case is adjourned to date already fixed, 13.08.19 for reply and arguments.

However, all the counsel representing the above accused has sought interim bail for them till the decision of their bail applications on merits inter alia submitting that no doubt as per the provisions of Section 212 (6) of the Companies Act, the prosecution is required to be heard and then the issue of regular bail is to be considered but it is also a matter of fact that the bailable warrants were served upon all these applicant only with details of offences for which they have been summoned but the copy of complaint along with all the documents and investigation report as submitted before the court, was not served upon the applicant, as such, they are not in a position to put forward their proper defence as their main plea is that no offence under the Companies Act is attributable to them and thus bar of section 212(6) is not attracted and they have valid grounds and reasons to justify their stand after going through the records which are admittedly voluminous. Be that as it may.

No doubt as argued by the counsel for the complainant, SFIO, as per the provisions of section 204(3), only copy of the complaint is required to be sent to the accused along with process of service and thus there was no need to send the complete file containing the investigating report and supporting documents, which is otherwise voluminous report consisting of more than fifty thousand pages. And thus as per law, it is required to be supplied to the accused only after his appearance before the court and thus there is no question of sending the entire file to the accused along with bail warrants. Then it is stated by SFIO that all the applicants are being supplied the entire file today itself to all the accused who are appearing today itself.

In view of the above factual position, the complete file was provided to all the above said accused persons. Thus it is a matter of fact that the complete paper book of the complaint including investigations report which is admittedly voluminous file has been supplied to the applicants, who have appeared and moved bail applications today. No doubt, this court has taken cognizance on the basis of the complaint filed by the complainant, SFIO alongwith the complete investigations report and a detailed summoning order has been passed considering the entire record but it is also a fact that the accused has a right to go through the entire file and to know what are the exact acts of omissions and commission attributed to them to summon them in this case and then to contest those issues to justify their bail plea. Above all till the time the complainant, SFIO will not file the reply and rebut the stand of the applicants, it is not possible to consider the bar under section 212(6) of the Companies Act, 2013 and this all process shall take some time, it being case of voluminous evidence, which requires time to gone into.

In view of the above peculiar facts and circumstances, in order to provide a fair chance to the applicants to know the allegations and to have a proper right to put forward their stand in order to justify their bails pleas but without going into the merits of the controversy or commenting anything on that aspect and without considering any of the grounds on merits, it is ordered that till the time the regular bail applications of all the above accused are not heard and decided on respective merits based on their respective grounds, all of them are ordered to be released on interim bail on furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- each with one surety each in the like amount subject to undertaking by way of an affidavit in which they will furnish their complete particulars about their name, address, contact numbers, e-mail ID, if any, passport details and at the same time all of them are also ordered to deposit their Passport with the court with further undertaking that they will appear on the date fixed and continue to appear before this court during the trial on the date fixed and will comply with all further orders of this court and will not leave the country except with permission of this court. Requisite bonds furnished, accepted and attested. The applicants are permitted to furnish their affidavits as ordered above along with their passports on the adjourned date as requested by their counsels. The SFIO is at liberty to inform the Emigration department, Government of India, about the pendency of this case against all the applicants.

Accused No. A-180 : Ichchhita Dungarwal

As per theailable warrant, the accused namely Ishita (A-180) has surrendered and moved bail application. Heard. During the course of arguments, it is admitted fact that this accused has been summoned for violation of Section 227 of the Companies Act, 1956 as punishable under Section 233 of the Companies Act, 1956, which is punishable with maximum fine of Rs.10,000/-. As such, the offence being bailable, she is admitted to bail on her furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety in the like amount. Requisite bonds furnished which are accepted and attested. She is directed to appear on 04.09.19 for further proceedings.

Accused No. A-181 : Neha Kataria

As per the bailable warrants accused namely Neha Kataria (A-181) has also surrendered and moved application seeking regular bail. Heard. During the course of arguments, it is admitted fact that she has been summoned for violation of Section 227 as punishable under Section 233 of the Companies Act, 1956 with a fine of Rs.10,000/-, which thus bailable offence. Similarly, she has also been summoned for violation of Section 147 of the old companies act, which is punishable under Section 230 of the Companies Act, 1956 and as per Section 147(2) including proviso the maximum imprisonment in the said offence can be one year and fine and as such this offence is also bailable. Accordingly she is admitted to bail on her furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety in the like amount. Requisite bonds furnished which are accepted and attested. She is directed to appear on 04.09.19 for further proceedings.

Accused who have been served and not present but moved applications seeking anticipatory bail

A-135 : Sidharath Chauhan : Not present
Shri Niranjana Singh Advocate for this accused

A-154 : Bharat Kumar Mardia : Not present
Shri Sanjeev Jain Advocate for this applicant-accused

Both the above accused after being served through bailable warrants have not surrendered but moved separate applications seeking anticipatory bails, which are being heard. As such, further orders qua them shall be passed accordingly.

A request made by the counsels for the applicants-accused, who appeared personally or through counsels, to supply the entire complaint and supporting record is also allowed and the complainant, SFIO is directed to supply the complete complaint and supporting documents to all these applicants or their counsels as the case and reader shall record the statements of all of them may in this regard. The request of the prosecution to supply soft copy of the complaint and supporting documents it being a voluminous by way of a Pen drive is also allowed as all the Advocates appearing for the applicants have also shown their concurrence to get the copy of the entire complaint and record in the soft form in a Pen drive.

Needless to say, since this composite order has been passed after hearing so many Advocates, who have appeared on behalf of the accused as mentioned above, there is a possibility of some inadvertent mistake as to mentioning of their proper names and the accused they represent or any thing else, it is also ordered that in case any such issue is there, they will report to the court so that the same should be properly recorded in further proceedings.

Now case be put up on 13.08.2019 for further proceedings as ordered above.
