

SFIO Vs Adarsh Buildestate etc.
(CNR No.HRGR01-007022/2019) (CIS No.COMA No.5/2019)

Present : Sh. Lokender Singh Raghav, Senior Standing Counsel for the complainant, SFIO.
Sh. Vishal Yadav, counsel for applicant-accused Paramvir
Singh Sangwan.

Today the case was fixed for further consideration on the application moved by the accused Paramvir Singh Sangwan (A-174) for withdrawal of warrant of arrest. An application has been filed by the counsel for the applicant, inter-alia, stating that on 26.9.2019 the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court, Chandigarh has pleased to fixed the Writ Petition No.23904 of 2019 for 07.04.2019 and this court has been directed to decide the bail application of the applicant on its own merits. However, certified copy of the order is not received. The application is supported by an affidavit of the counsel. It is a fact that warrant of arrest against the applicant-accused is already issued for 03.10.2019 and now the applicant has also moved an application for anticipatory bail which is fixed for 30.9.2019 for reply and arguments. In these facts and circumstances the present application is disposed of with the observations that since the applicant has applied for the anticipatory bail and the matter is adjourned to 4.10.2019 for consideration alongwith bail applications of the other accused persons similarly situated and till then coercive process against those persons have been stayed and thus it is ordered that let warrant of arrest issued against the applicant-accused be not executed till 04.10.2019. However, this order will be subject to any further directions of the Hon'ble High Court as per the order dated 26.9.2019 copy of which will be placed on the record by the parties on 04.10.2019. The Criminal Misc. No.7517 of 2019 filed in this regard alongwith application filed today stands disposed of accordingly. Necessary entries be made in the CIS and papers be tagged with the main file.
