

SFIO Vs Adarsh Buildestate Ltd. & others
(CIS No. COMA/5/2019) (CNR No.HRGR01-007022/2019)

Present : Shri Lokender Singh Raghav, Senior Standing counsel for the complainant, SFIO.
Sh. Akash Singh Jangra, counsel for accused Raj Kumar Modi.
Accused absent.

File taken up today as the bail application of applicant-accused Raj Kumar Modi was fixed for today for orders. Accordingly, vide separate detailed order of even date dictated, signed and pronounced, the regular bail application filed by applicant-accused Raj Kumar Modi stands dismissed. Consequently, the order of interim bail dated 13.8.2019 is recalled. However, the applicant-accused Raj Kumar Modi is not present despite the fact that he was on interim bail till date and supposed to appear. His counsel has failed to submit any explanation in this regard. In these fact and circumstances, let warrant of arrest of accused Raj Kumar Modi be issued for 04.09.2019. The bail bond and surety bond already furnished by him for the purpose of interim bail, stand forfeited on account of his absence and as such let notice under Section 446 Cr.P.C. be also served upon his surety to show cause why proceedings should not be initiated against him for non-appearance of accused Raj Kumar Modi on today.

30.8.2019
(ashok)

Sd/-
(Ravi Kumar Sondhi)
Sessions Judge, Gurugram
(UID No.HR0026)